Co-op living

Living in a co-op community is different than living in an investor-owned park. This type of community living is unique – homeowners in resident owned communities are not simply tenants in a park, they are members of a co-op and owners of a business. As a co-op member it is important to understand that:

- The cooperative is a business incorporated under N.H. RSA 301-A, Consumers' Cooperative Associations. It is owned by its members. Individual homeowners do not own the land underneath their homes; the co-op does.
- The co-op has member-approved bylaws, which spell out how the business is governed.
- The co-op is democratically governed by a one-member, one vote system. Each member-household has equal decision-making authority.
- New homeowners moving into the community are required to become members and enter into an Occupancy Agreement, binding them to the bylaws and community rules.
- Members elect a board of directors to carry out the day-to-day tasks of running a business. The board then appoints committees to take on other tasks.
- Members have control over big decisions, such as carrying charges (rent), approving the annual budget, electing a board and amending the bylaws or community rules.
- Members can be expelled from the cooperative (which is different than being evicted from the community) for obstructing the management of the co-op. This is a serious matter and not to be taken lightly – members who are expelled typically lose voting privileges and pay a higher lot rent.

The board and the appointed committee members must adhere to the co-op's bylaws and rules, as well as to state and federal laws. They are also co-op members, and are accountable to their fellow members. They must run the co-op in a fair, consistent, democratic and business-like manner.

Co-op membership has rewards, rights and responsibilities. The strength of a resident-owned community is directly related to the participation and commitment of its members. By participating in the co-op, members can help reduce costs, build a vibrant neighborhood and grow as leaders. Participation includes everything from baking brownies for the annual community barbecue to operating the well system, from an hour a month to a two-year commitment on the board of directors.

Silver Fox Cooperative, Inc.
Creditworthiness Criteria

An applicant's past and present performance in meeting financial obligations is one of the components by which an applicant(s) will be considered.

Applicants who do not have established credit reported on their credit report, or do not have a score, will be evaluated through proof of a positive payment history from three "non-traditional" or "alternative" credit sources. Non-traditional/alternative credit sources include, but are not limited to, rent, car insurance, utility, phone, cable/internet bills, etc.

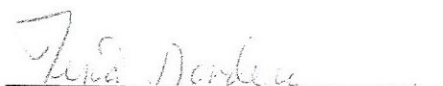

The following will be considered examples of unfavorable credit references and will serve as the basis for rejection of an application:

- A. Three (3) or more trade-line references past due in the previous two years, excluding medical accounts;
- B. Any past-due, outstanding account with a housing-related company, including a previous landlord and/or property management company, utility company (electric, gas, phone, etc.) and/or mortgage lien holder;
- C. Charge-offs and collections that show as "unpaid" (excluding medical accounts), and that are not in repayment status. Housing-related debts, as listed above, must be paid in full. Proof of payment arrangements for all other unpaid charge-offs and collections, as well as proof of an initial payment on the account in collection or charge-off status, will be required;
- D. Applicants with any unsatisfied public record;
- E. Debt-to-Income Ratio that exceeds 35-40%, as defined: Monthly reported debt {examples: anticipated mortgage (as disclosed in application), revolving lines of credit, car payment, etc.} / monthly income.

If any of the above mentioned unfavorable credit references are the result of a financial hardship or medical catastrophe (military duty, divorce, disability, death of an immediate family member, loss of job, etc.), the board of directors may, at their own discretion, waive any or all of the above referenced creditworthiness guidelines. In such cases, the applicant(s) will be required to provide documentation and/or a letter of explanation of such hardship or catastrophe.

A Summary of Your Rights Under the Fair Credit Reporting Act

The federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA) promotes the accuracy, fairness, and privacy of information in the files of consumer reporting agencies. There are many types of consumer reporting agencies, including credit bureaus and specialty agencies (such as agencies that sell information about check writing histories, medical records, and rental history records). Here is a summary of your major rights under the FCRA. For more information, including information about additional rights, go to www.ftc.gov/credit or write to: Consumer Response Center, Room 130-A, Federal Trade Commission, 600 Pennsylvania Ave. N.W., Washington, D.C. 20580.

You must be told if information in your file has been used against you. Anyone who uses a credit report or another type of consumer report to deny your application for credit, insurance, or employment – or to take another adverse action against you – must tell you, and must give you the name, address, and phone number of the agency that provided the information.

You have the right to know what is in your file. You may request and obtain all the information about you in the files of a consumer reporting agency (your “file disclosure”). You will be required to provide proper identification, which may include your Social Security number. In many cases, the disclosure will be free. You are entitled to a free file disclosure if:

- a person has taken adverse action against you because of information in your credit report;
- you are the victim of identity theft and place a fraud alert in your file;
- your file contains inaccurate information as a result of fraud;
- you are on public assistance;
- you are unemployed but expect to apply for employment within 60 days.

In addition, by September 2005 all consumers will be entitled to one free disclosure every 12 months upon request from each nationwide credit bureau and from nationwide specialty consumer reporting agencies. See www.ftc.gov/credit for additional information.

You have the right to ask for a credit score. Credit scores are numerical summaries of your credit-worthiness based on information from credit bureaus. You may request a credit score from consumer reporting agencies that create scores or distribute scores used in residential real property loans, but you will have to pay for it. In some mortgage transactions, you will receive credit score information for free from the mortgage lender.

You have the right to dispute incomplete or inaccurate information. If you identify information in your file that is incomplete or inaccurate, and report it to the consumer reporting agency, the agency must investigate unless your dispute is frivolous. See www.ftc.gov/credit for an explanation of dispute procedures.

Consumer reporting agencies must correct or delete inaccurate, incomplete, or unverifiable information. Inaccurate, incomplete or unverifiable information must be removed or corrected, usually within 30 days. However, a consumer reporting agency may continue to report information it has verified as accurate.

Consumer reporting agencies may not report outdated negative information. In most cases, a consumer reporting agency may not report negative information that is more than seven years old, or bankruptcies that are more than 10 years old.

Access to your file is limited. A consumer reporting agency may provide information about you only to people with a valid need -- usually to consider an application with a creditor, insurer, employer, landlord, or other business. The FCRA specifies those with a valid need for access.

You must give your consent for reports to be provided to employers. A consumer reporting agency may not give out information about you to your employer, or a potential employer, without your written

- 3) Any homeowner wishing to sell or remove their home is required to give a written notice of intent to the Board of Directors. Failure to give notice can result in 30 days additional lot rent. In either case, the homeowner is responsible for advising any potential buyers of the requirement of joining the cooperative as a condition of allowing the home to remain in the community.

For a period of thirty (30) days following the delivery of the notice to the Board, if the resident receives more than one offer for the same price upon the same terms and conditions, and one of said offers is from a lower-income family or individual, the resident shall accept the offer from the lower-income family or individual. Provided that the Board may authorize the sale to someone other than a lower-income family or individual at the request of the selling resident in the case of a sale to a family member or where the delay in selling would pose an unreasonable hardship for the selling resident.

A lower-income family or individual shall be defined as a family or individual whose total income does not exceed 80% of the median income in the county as determined by the U.S. Dept. of Housing and Urban Development and published in the Federal Register.

If the Cooperative is owed money by the resident, the Board of Directors will sign a deed (within 15 days as required by RSA 477:44), as requested but may insist that the deed be transmitted directly to the escrow or closing agent with a Notice of Lien (pursuant to 205-A:4-a) on the resident's home for those amounts due and owing the Cooperative. The deed should only be recorded upon payment to the Cooperative of all outstanding balances due to the Cooperative, if not the Buyer will be on notice of the lien and the Cooperative may collect it against the home despite the transfer.

The following shall apply in all situations where Fannie Mae or USDA-Rural Development holds or guarantees an Eligible Loan on a home in this cooperative:

- Notwithstanding any other Bylaw provision, the purchaser of a Manufactured Home who acquired title at a foreclosure sale conducted by the holder of an "Eligible Loan" (as defined by RSA 205-A:4-a), or directly from the holder of an Eligible Loan, shall be exempt from any "low income" requirement.

Each additional Occupant that is 18 years or older will be required to do a background check at the expense of the homeowner. The background check must meet the co-op's Criminal Background Criteria.
- 8) All homeowners are responsible for the actions of their guests, members of their household and their pets. Community Rules apply to all guests and invitees, as well as the homeowner household.

International Cooperative Alliance Principles

1st Principle: Voluntary and Open Membership

Co-operatives are voluntary organizations, open to all persons able to use their services and willing to accept the responsibilities of membership, without gender, social, racial, political or religious discrimination.

2nd Principle: Democratic Member Control

Co-operatives are democratic organizations controlled by their members, who actively participate in setting their policies and making decisions. Men and women serving as elected representatives are accountable to the membership. In primary co-operatives members have equal voting rights (one member, one vote) and co-operatives at other levels are also organized in a democratic manner.

3rd Principle: Member Economic Participation

Members contribute equitably to, and democratically control, the capital of their co-operative. At least part of that capital is usually the common property of the co-operative. Members usually receive limited compensation, if any, on capital subscribed as a condition of membership. Members allocate surpluses for any or all of the following purposes: developing their co-operative, possibly by setting up reserves, part of which at least would be indivisible; benefiting members in proportion to their transactions with the co-operative; and supporting other activities approved by the membership.

4th Principle: Autonomy and Independence

Co-operatives are autonomous, self-help organizations controlled by their members. If they enter to agreements with other organizations, including governments, or raise capital from external sources, they do so on terms that ensure democratic control by their members and maintain their co-operative autonomy.

5th Principle: Education, Training and Information

Co-operatives provide education and training for their members, elected representatives, managers, and employees so they can contribute effectively to the development of their co-operatives. They inform the general public - particularly young people and opinion leaders - about the nature and benefits of co-operation.

6th Principle: Co-operation among Co-operatives

Co-operatives serve their members most effectively and strengthen the co-operative movement by working together through local, national, regional and international structures.

7th Principle: Concern for Community

Co-operatives work for the sustainable development of their communities through policies approved by their members.

These principles can be found on the International Cooperative Alliance website at <http://www.ica.coop/al-ica/>.

For this reason, all Eviction Notices may be accompanied by a notice of the charges against them and of a reasonable opportunity to be heard before the Board of Directors of the Corporation not less than 15 days from the date of said notice. Article 8 - Assignment: The rights set forth herein may be assigned to a third party only in the event of extreme and temporary hardship, as determined by the Board of Directors and upon such terms and for such time periods as it deems appropriate.

Article 9- Invalidity: If any clause, part of a clause or provision of this Agreement shall be determined to be invalid under any law or their application by a Court of competent jurisdiction, such invalidity shall not affect the validity of all remaining portions of that clause or provision or the other clauses or provisions of this Agreement.

Article 10 - Waiver: Either party's failure to insist upon strict performance of any provision of this Agreement shall not be deemed or construed as a waiver of performance of any other term of the Agreement or a waiver of such provision on future occasion.

These fees and costs will be paid by the homeowner, even if the eviction is terminated or cancelled by the Corporation. The legal fees would also include all such fees and costs incurred in connection with a Supreme Court Appeal filed by the homeowner. The legal fees and costs incurred by the Corporation shall be considered additional rent for the unit in question, and this additional rent shall be due and payable by the homeowner in accordance with these Community Rules.

Selling the Home

Homeowner Responsibilities

- The homeowner must inform the board of his or her intent to sell the home.
- In most co-ops, the home is required to be marketed to low-to moderate-income homebuyers for the initial period of 30-60 days, depending on the bylaws. All other consideration being equal, income-qualifying buyers will take precedence during this period. After this time period passes, this restriction is removed.
- If the homeowner vacates the home during the sale process, he or she is still fully responsible for all upkeep and lot rent.
- All co-op requirements regarding "For Sale" signage must be adhered to. Check the community rules for clarification.
- The homeowner is responsible for continued maintenance of the lot and preparation for the change in ownership. The lot must be left neat and clean. Any failure may result in the co-op holding back part or all of the seller's membership fee.
- The homeowner is the initial liaison between buyers/real estate agents and the membership committee.
- The homeowner/seller should request that a membership package be given to any prospective buyers and/or real estate agencies that list the home.
- The homeowner/seller is required to inform all prospective buyers of the requirement of membership acceptance, the process, the time frame involved, and any special conditions that may apply.
- Fuel storage tanks must be upgraded to meet state and federal installation standards BEFORE ownership changes. The financial responsibility for this must be decided between the seller and buyer.
- Pro-ration of lot rent must occur between the seller and buyer. No credit for any portion of lot rent will be given by the co-op to either party.
- The co-op DOES NOT involve itself with negotiations of the sale of the home, except as it may directly affect the cooperative?
- Transfer of the membership fee as a part of the sale is not allowed. The homeowner/seller must request reimbursement from the co-op and the buyer must pay their whole membership fee directly to the co-op.
- The sale transaction is not complete until the buyer's membership fee is paid in full to the co-op and verified, a new Occupancy Agreement is fully executed, and the transfer deed is signed by the co-op. Only then may the new homeowner take full possession of the dwelling and move in.
- Under no circumstance may the new owner move any property into the home or onto the lot until the sale is complete. This includes resolving any issues between the co-op and the previous homeowner.
